

ST. JAMES LUTHERAN
MESSENGER
SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 22, 2019

Consideration of and care for those in need (especially those “at our gate,” visible to us, of whom we are aware) is an essential component of good stewardship. It is in the sharing of wealth that we avoid the snare of wealth. It is the one whom death could not hold—who comes to us risen from the dead—who can free us from the death grip of greed.

Special Congregational Meeting

Noisy Offering 5th Sunday of the Month! September 29th . Bring your change and lets see how loud we can make it.

The St. James Lutheran Saturday Sisters is a group of women who gather together for coffee, fellowship, Bible study and some occasional "field trips". We typically meet on the first Saturday of each month

- September through May - at 9 am in the N E Age room. The meeting date/location may occasionally need to be changed so please check the bulletin for meeting updates. All women are invited to participate.

Our Bible study is taken from a variety of sources - current events, monthly devotionals or books. Our next meeting will be Saturday, September 7th and we will be starting a new series - Anxious for Nothing: Finding Calm in a Chaotic World by Max Lucado. Participants will only need to have the Anxious for Nothing Study Guide for the meetings. We will be utilizing a DVD, along with the study guide, for our meetings.

With all of our upcoming events we need volunteers! If you are interested in helping out please contact the office, Mary Browder or the appropriate person in charge.
